fact sheet

Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary serves the church as a learning community with an Anabaptist vision, educating followers of Jesus Christ to be leaders for God's reconciling mission in the world.

■ AMBS Full Tuition Scholarships Church Leadership Award

The AMBS Church Leadership Award is a scholarship program intended to encourage and support outstanding Mennonite students with gifts for ministry as they prepare to serve the church. This award provides a full-tuition grant to a beginning student in a master's program. The recipient may receive this grant for two or three years by meeting certain conditions. Awards are available based upon prior recipient's graduation.

Werner K. Fransen Next Generation Scholarship Earl & Florence Schlegel Next Generation Scholarship

The Next Generation Scholarships encourage and support outstanding Mennonite students with gifts in church leadership. This scholarship provides a full-tuition grant and a stipend for living expenses up to $4,000 each year to a student beginning the Master of Divinity program. The recipient may receive this scholarship for three years by meeting certain conditions. Awards are available based upon prior recipient's graduation.

Criteria for award recipients

Recipients will be Mennonites who are members in good standing of a congregation in Mennonite Church Canada, Mennonite Church USA or a related Mennonite group. The decision to award a grant will be based on four factors:

1. Previous academic performance, based on information gained from transcripts and references.
2. Leadership potential and demonstrated skills, based on information gained from references.
3. Theological discernment, based on a five- to ten-page paper written on the subject of "The Church."
4. Personal character and emotional health, based on information gained from references.

Procedures for the AMBS Next Generation and Church Leadership Awards:

Applicants must submit the following by April 1:

1. A completed application for admission with all supporting materials, including transcript(s) and references.
2. A completed application for financial aid.
3. A five- to ten-page paper on the subject of "The Church."
4. Candidates for the Next Generation Award will be interviewed.

AMBS selects recipients of these awards by May 1 and informs them by mail. Recipients must accept their awards in writing by May 31 to confirm enrollment for the fall semester.

Understandings

1. Recipients will be enrolled as full-time students (nine hours or more per semester plus one short-term course during Interterm or the summer).

2. Students in the M.Div. program are eligible for an award for three years. Students in an M.A. program are eligible for an award for two years. No extensions of an award are possible.
3. Eligibility from year to year will be based on satisfactory progress toward the completion of the degree, including:
 - Maintaining a 3.0 GPA
 - Continuing as a full-time student
 - Supporting and adhering to AMBS community life standards
4. Recipients will not be eligible for need-based AMBS grants, including AMBS matching grants, in addition to the full-tuition award.

■ other special scholarships

The Steiner Bivocational Scholarship

This scholarship assists persons annually who are training for bivocational ministry or who are pastors coming from a situation where they combine their congregational ministry with other employment. Up to full tuition may be covered for one student, or smaller grants may go to more than one student, depending on eligibility and demand.

Multicultural Scholarships

These scholarships are available annually for students (of any race) preparing to minister in a racial/ethnic context and who will contribute to the multicultural ethos of the church. AMBS will give priority to students identified by the AMBS Mission Studies Center in dialogue with Mennonite Church mission and service agencies and partners. Three scholarships of up to $5,000 (in addition to need-based AMBS grants) are available each year, depending on demand.

Mission–Evangelism Scholarships

Mission-Evangelism scholarships are available annually to international students who are sent to AMBS by their home churches with a commitment to return to their home countries and who have additional church agency support. Three scholarships (in addition to need-based AMBS grants) are available each year.

The MCEC/AMBS Study Fund

This fund is used to assist a pastor/student from the Mennonite Conference of Eastern Canada who needs approximately one year of residency to complete a degree at AMBS. Up to 60 percent of tuition may be covered for one student in 2008-2009.
